It's making my workflow a lot more efficient with HR being all in one place. I'm not looking for reports anymore—the reports are coming directly to me. It lets you focus more on the proactive side of HR management. And it makes managing your staff very, very easy.

Operations Director

I've used several systems in the past, but nothing compared to the level of integration we get with Employment Hero. It's all in one system, which makes it far easier to manage everything and saves us serious time and hassle.

SianB.
People Manager

We wanted a centralised platform for all things employment; HR and Employee Engagement services—all of these processes were disjointed. Employment Hero pieced all of them together in a really user friendly way. You ticked all of our boxes.

Amanda B.
People Excellence Manager

Employment Hero has shifted where I spend my time. Rather than doing it in terms of business as usual or admin paperwork systems, chasing things—everything is now accessible so I can spend the time having meaningful conversations to allow for growth and strategic conversations to be the focus.
